SOCIAL HOUSE
RESTAURANT

The origin of the cocktail and the name itself, is an interesting and sordid tale and no one really knows the truth. You could look back at the stories behind the creation and traditions of some of the most popular cocktails, distilled spirits and the people who made them.

After taking all this under consideration, We have combined all our knowledge and mastery as well as all the local influenced products to create something unique for you who wishes to enjoy the exquisite flavours that are your Ifuru Exculsively Yours crafted Cocktails.

Cheers,
Dewa Takesi
